

Nonsuch Mansion Gardens Tree Trail

Nonsuch Mansion Gardens Tree Trail

1. Weeping Cherry
Prunus pendula. Bright pink flowers in spring.

2. False Acacia
Robinia pseudoacacia. Native to USA where it is called Black Locust.

3. Cedar of Lebanon
Cedrus Libani. Several large specimens around the Mansion House.

4. London Plane
Platanus x hispanica. 7.45m girth, probably dates to 1700's.

5. Judas Tree
Cercis siliquastrum. Bright pink flowers in Spring.

6. Copper Beech
Fagus sylvatica f. Purpurea. Deep purple leaves.

7. Oak Walk
Quercus robur. A line of English oak trees.

8. Silver Birch
Betula pendula. Grown by the Nonsuch Voles from seed in 2010.

9. Holly
Ilex aquifolium. Multi-stemmed specimen.

10. Ginkgo - female
Ginkgo biloba. Yellow fruits in Autumn.

11. Yew Trees
Taxus baccata. Hedges cut to form a "Yew Room".

12. Ginkgo – male
Ginkgo biloba. Large specimen.

13. Acer Trees
Various Acers planted in 2021.

14. Laburnum
Laburnum anagyroides. Bright yellow flowers in Spring.

15. Tulip Tree
Liriodendron tulipifera. Tulip-like flowers.

16. Foxglove Trees
Paulownia tomentosa. Pruned annually to produce spectacular large leaves.

17. Red Oak
Quercus rubra. Red Autumn foliage.

18. Giant Redwood
Sequoiadendron giganteum. Planted in the Pinetum around 1850.

19. Magnolia Trees
Magnolia grandiflora. Large white flowers.

20. Indian Bean Tree
Catalpa bignonioides. White Summer flowers, bean-like pods in Autumn.